

“Flood Relief” Pot Luck & Irish Music Concert*

At Brian Luke Seaward’s House
Saturday, November 2, 2013

Many of our friends, neighbors and fellow Colorado citizens were devastated by the September floods that decimated Boulder County last week. Many remain homeless, unable to return to their homes, or have had their lives changed drastically overnight with the loss of many valuable possessions. They need our help. I have offered to host a potluck/house concert featuring renowned fiddle player, Jessie Burns (who has been evacuated out of her home in Lyons), and esteemed musicians, Adam Agee (fiddle) and Jon Sousa (banjo and guitar) for an incredible session of Irish music. We are suggesting a $25 cash donation, but you are welcome to donate more, if you would like. Monies will be “gifted“ to Jessie and her neighborhood friends Lyons, who are trying to piece their lives back together again. Jessie said this event will help take her mind off of the floods and it’s aftermath. “Something positive to look forward to.” Indeed!

“Luke thanks so very much for hosting this event and putting the energy out there to help us. There are so many musicians in Lyons who are in dire straits and any help we can send their way would be so appreciated since no one had flood insurance and our house insurance companies are refusing any help at all.” — Jessie Burns
